Sri Lanka and the State of Odisha in India have sought to further enhance connectivity between them, capitalizing on the centuries-old strong historical linkages. The possibility of further strengthening these ties was discussed when Sri Lanka's High Commissioner to India Austin Fernando visited the State of Odisha from 24-27 August and met with State authorities for discussions.

High Commissioner Fernando was in the north-eastern Indian State of Odisha at the invitation of the Kalinga Institute of Technological Training (KIIT) and the Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences (KISS) as the Chief Guest of the celebrations to mark the second Anniversary of the University of KISS in Bhubaneswar.

During his visit to the State of Odisha, High Commissioner Fernando called on Odisha Governor Prof. Ganesh Lal and met with the Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Tourism, Odia Language, Literature and Culture Jyothi Prakash Panigrahi, and the Chief Secretary of the State of Odisha, Asit Tripathy.

The High Commissioner's discussions with the State authorities centered on the possible ways of enhancing connectivity between Sri Lanka and the State of Odisha and promoting people to people contacts, leveraging the historical ties between the two lands. In this context, the Odisha State Government authorities requested High Commissioner Fernando to explore the possibility of starting direct flights between Colombo and the State Capital Bhubaneswar with a view to increasing connectivity. The two sides also discussed the ways and means of mutually promoting the Ramayana Trail sites in Sri Lanka and the Buddhist sites in Odisha.

Attending the second Anniversary celebrations of the KISS University, High Commissioner Fernando delivered a speech and later met with the Founder of the KITT and KISS Prof. Achyuta Samantha, Vice Chancellor of the KISS Prof. H.K Satapathy, Director General International Relations Debraj Pradhan and Director International Relations Rajan Gengaje.

High Commissioner Fernando also had a tour of the KITT and KISS Universities and met with the 17 Sri Lankan students who have recently entered the KITT. These students have been awarded fully funded scholarships by the Government of India and the KITT.

During his visit to Odisha, High Commissioner Austin Fernando visited and paid obeisance at the Bhubaneswar Center of the Mahabodhi Society of India where he met the President of the Mahabodhi Center of Odisha, former Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bimalendu Mohanty and its Secretary Dr. Sourendra Kumar Mohapatra. He also visited Buddhist sites in Bhubaneswar such as Ratnagiri, Lalitagiri, Daulagiri and Udayagiri as well as famous Hindu religious sites in Konark, Puri and Bhubaneswar: Sun Temple, Lingraj Temple and Muktheeswara Temple.

Counsellor of the High Commission of Sri Lanka in New Delhi Achini Perera was also associated with the visit and the meetings.
